UNDER THE WALLS.

Several Wholesale Houses Destroyed by Fire--Five Men Crushed to Death--Big Flames at St. Joe, Mo.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 16.—Bamberger, Bloom & Co., one of the three largest wholesale dry goods and notion houses in Louisville, was completely destroyed by fire last night.

A conservative estimate places the aggregate loss at $750,000. Five men were killed and two seriously injured by the falling of the Seventh street wall. The killed are Captain Ed. Early, John Wheeler, Pat Foley, Lawrence Steigliter, John Monahan and Denny McGrath, all firemen.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 16.—The St. Joseph exposition met with a great disaster last night. The crowd yesterday and last night was far greater than at any time since the opening. Just as the entertainment in the great amphitheatre had closed, a fire broke out in the main hall.

The fire started in the machinery department at 10 o'clock. A great crowd had been on the grounds all day and the number visiting the exhibition was universally large, but when the alarm was sounded not over 400 were about the immense building. The arrangements for fighting a fire were far from complete and very little could be done to stay the progress of the flames.

The fire spread rapidly destroying all that end occupied by the heavier exhibits and sweeping on toward the finer and richer booths, where textile fabrics, fine furniture and delicate machinery and instruments were displayed.

The attendants and people present sprang at the task of carrying out such articles as they could find in the blinding smoke, but the hot air, laden with flaming cinders from the upper frame works of the building, drove them all and held undisputed revel over the entire structure. At 12 the great roof fell in with a crash that could be heard in the city, three miles away, and then the most sanguine gave up the hope of saving even a portion of the rare articles there exhibited.

At 1:30 this morning the main building was totally destroyed. The fire could do no further damage, however, as the other buildings are entirely detached from this and were carefully guarded. The loss is total and will reach fully $300,000, most of which falls upon individual exhibitors, who did not consider it necessary to take out insurance on the goods in such a place.

Among the most famous articles shown was a fine steel car, which has attracted the attention of every visitor. This also is totally destroyed inflicting a loss of $40,000 additional. No lives were lost in the great fire but many persons were injured.

The huge main building and all the exhibits, including a carriage made for Lafayette on his last visit to America are in ashes. Loss $300,000.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT.

Fred Studer, a Young Baker, is Behind the Bars for Stealing Money.

Last Thursday night, a young baker named Fred Studer, in the employ of Louis P. Scherer, the Maumee avenue baker, entered the sleeping rooms of Henry Zollinger and Henry Scherer, who are also employed by Mr. Scherer, and extracted from their pockets the sum of $78.

Studer then left suddenly for Bluffton, to which place he was traced by Chief of Police Wilkinson, who detailed Lieutenant Leonard Fuchshober to follow him. The officer upon his arrival at Bluffton, found that Studer had gone to Kenton, Ohio, and telegraphing there he had the man arrested. The prisoner was brought on here and placed in a cell.

To-day Studer was arraigned before 'Squire France and bound over in the sum of $500. He went to jail. The young man arrived in this country from Germany about three months ago.

LOOKS BRIGHTER.

The Men Engaged in the London Strike Resume Work.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Most of the strikers resumed work this morning. It is expected that work on the docks will be in full swing to-morrow. About one thousand idle dock laborers are waiting at the gates of the docks. They threaten violence against the men who were employed to take the striker's place, and who the directors of the dock companies refuse to discarge.

There was an explosion to-day in a foundry on Rue Popincourt. Several men were injured.

OPEN SALOONS.

The Liquor Traffic Plied Openly in the City Yesterday--Two Affidavits Filed in Consequence.

Knowing full well that a large number of visitors would arrive in the city by reason of the dedication of St. Paul Lutheran church yesterday most all of the saloon keepers kept open doors at the rear and a few are reported as boldly thrown open at the front.

The saloon keepers did big business, without any attempt further than above stated to conceal the fact. The business was conducted quietly however, the worst evil results being discernible upon the streets at night.

Two affidavits were filed at the mayor's court this morning by Officer Harkenrider against Wm. Hollenbeck and Fred Boltz, the latter having kept his front door open. Mr. Boltz don't think there is anything gained by sneaking around a thing.

The whisper goes around: "What will be the result?"

The result will be simply this: The saloon keepers of Fort Wayne will do Sunday business hereafter. Access can be had at the back doors if not at the front ones. The affair promises to become as interesting as before the "reformation" took place, the time Mayor Harding was elected and he issued a proclamation that he was praised for, an edict that struck terror to the saloonkeepers for—one brief Sunday.

"Tap another keg! there is a thirsty crowd at the bar."

DEATH OF HENRY F. DROVER.

A Prominent Huntington Citizen Well Known Here Passes Away.

Mr. Henry F. Drover, a druggist and prominent citizen of Huntington, was stricken with paralysis Friday evening and died Saturday. Thursday last Mr. Drover was in the city. He is well known here and was a member of Fort Wayne Commandery, K. T.

Mayor S. F. Day and W. B. Knapp, station agent, both of Huntington, were in the city to-day to make arrangements with the Fort Wayne Commandery for the funeral, which will occur at that place to-morrow afternoon. The funeral will be conducted under the auspices of the Commandery.

TELEGRAPH TALK.

Mrs. Langtry Gets a Divorce From Her Husband--News From Different Points.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A report is current that Mrs. Langtry has succeeded in obtaining a divorce from her husband. No positive confirmation of the rumor, however, is yet obtainable.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 16.—A private telegram announces the death in Washington, D. C., last night, of John W. Lane, a millionaire of this city.

CARROLLTON, Ill., Sept. 16.—The trial of Samuel Freeman, charged with murdering John F. Manning at Kana, on the night of Aug. 17, ended Saturday, the jury finding him guilty and fixing his punishment at thirteen years in the penitentiary.

SALEM, Mass., Sept. 16.—Charles C. Redmond, the well known landscape portrait painter, died at his residence in this city yesterday morning.

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 16.—The registration for the October election shows 4,579 voters in this city. An increase of 647 over last year's registration. A similar increase is reported all over the state, except at Boseman, where a loss is reported. The introduction of the Australian ballot system on the coming election adds an element of novelty.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 16.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue John Mason addressed a reunion of Maulsby's battery, at Palatine, Saturday, and declared in favor of a service pension for every honorably discharged soldier. He thought this would not raise the total pension list to over $100,000,000 per annum and with the large and increasing revenues of the government this expenditure could easily be met.

MONTREAL, Can., Sept. 16.—Prinode, the jumper, who has made several daring leaps at Rockaway Beach, Long Island, was severely injured here yesterday. He jumped from a tower 150 feet high into a net held by several men. Their hold of the safety blanket was not secure and the jumper struck the ground sustaining several fractures and bruises.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Ida Rudd, a bride of four months, quarreled with her husband last night at their home and angered by his remarks took a dose of laudanum. A doctor was called in immediately and Mrs. Rudd was relieved of the poison. No serious harm was done.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Two Little Girls, Daughters of Christian Heckemeyer and John Trier, Meet a Sudden Fate.

During the storm yesterday afternoon lightning struck the Lutheran church, not far from South Whitley, and two little girls aged twelve and fourteen years were instantly killed.

The church was crowded with Sunday school children and teachers and as the bolt shot down the steeple and into the audience room it swept a path of destruction in its course.

The scholars and teachers were all stunned and some knocked down by the lightning.

Two little girls, daughters of John Trier and Christian Hockemeyer were stricken dead. The fathers are widely known as prominent farmers of Whitley county and often come to this city. Mr. Trier is a son of Mr. Conrad Trier, a farmer of Adams township, this county.

It is an unusually sad event, and the bereaved families have much sympathy. A brother of the Trier girl is employed at Pfeiffer & Schlatter's hardware store and left for home at once upon receiving the information.

The church is known as St. Peters Lutheran church and is in the vicinity of South Whitley.

A daughter of Ernst Brueggman was stunned badly, but will recover.

PANIC AT HARTFORD CITY.

A heavy wind and rain storm struck Hartford City yesterday afternoon. A large tent tabernacle in which Elder B. F. Ashey, evangelist of the Christian church, has been holding meetings, was blown down. The audience had just began to gather when the accident occurred. The crash of the center pole and fall of the heavy canvass created a panic. No one was seriously hurt.

THE MACKIE MYSTERY.

His Marriage Precluded by a Telegram From Mrs. Frank Falker, Who Joins Him—Together They go to Canada.

It devoles upon a newspaper to give the news when matters reach the sensational and altogether scandalous phase as is the case in the instance of Mr. Robb Mackie's unaccountable actions of the last few days; but it is with regret that THE SENTINEL feels called upon to give facts in the case named.

On Wednesday evening last at Cooperstown, N. Y., was to have occured the marriage of Mary B. W. Steere, youngest daughter of Rufus Steere, a wealthy and well known citizen, to Mr. Robb Mackie, superintendent of the Jenney Electric Light works, of this city.

It is already known that on the eventful bridal eve, the groom failed to make his appearance, causing consternation to the fashionable assembled crowd. The "bride-to-be" was overcome with grief, and a general feeling of wonder, chagrin and indignation swelled within the parents and friends.

While this little scene was occurring, Mr. Robb Mackie was speeding on a train to Montreal in company with a Fort Wayne lady.

Who was she? A woman whose graces of womanhood had been praised, whose virtues were without a stint; an idol of modesty possessing all the lovable traits of character that at once place a fair creature on the summit of woman's sphere. Such was this woman whose name is known to all—Mrs. Frank Falker.

Not a link is missing from the chain of circumstances.

Mr. Robb Mackie had apartments at the Falker residence, on Harrison street. What inroads he made upon the affections of Mrs. Falker is not known. Enough has been learned to show that he swayed her at his will, and succumbing to the passionate attentions paid her, she forgot herself, her husband and her friends.

Mr. Mackie left Fort Wayne, evidently, to wed the young lady at Cooperstown; in fact, he had arrived there and made preparations for the event, having already purchased a wedding suit. When he was about to step off into the halcyon era of matrimony, Mrs. Falker left this city for Delphos, Ohio. There she arrived and was the guest of her brother, George Schank.

It was from Delphos she wired to Mr. Mackie to meet her at Albany, N. Y., and thither she sped by the first train. What induced the man to accept the appointment instead of eluding the woman is of course not known, but the two met at Albany and made their way to Montreal, Can., where it is supposed they are at present.

The outrageous aspect of the situation is readily seen. Mr. Mackie was held in high esteem by his employers at the Jenney works, where he was retained at a high salary. There was positively nothing to warrant the proceeding. If he was instrumental in deluding Mrs. Frank Falker he committed a shameful act, by which a home is broken up, a husband forsaken, a mother stricken with grief, and relatives made to feel the keen regret of such an act.

Mrs. Falker can only regret the step taken. Her mother, widow of the late Con Schank, who conducted business on Columbia street, is now at the home over which a cloud has suddenly come, lying in a desperatly frantic condition. She is under the care of Dr. Geo L. Greenawalt.

Mr. Frank Falker was in Chicago when the episode occurred and he was informed of his wife's departure and the circumstances connected therewith.

He arrived home this morning. He was approached by a SENTINEL reporter and he said that the actions of his wife were all a cloud to him. He said:

"I can not account for it. I know one thing: My wife has been led into this thing."

"What will you do?" was asked of him.

"What ought I do?" I have got to stand it, I suppose. The woman will suffer enough."

"Have you absolute proof that your wife is now in company with Mr. Mackie?" asked the reporter.

"No; I have not. I have though, enough evidence to show that she telegraphed Mackie to meet her at Albany and that they did meet and proceeded to Canada. The whole matter is one that I cannot understand."

It is a sad chapter. A wife gone wrong, and beyond a question she did so under an impulse that revealed to her no thought of the awful results.

A man highly respected leaves reputation, an undrawn salary amounting to more than $300 and a host of friends and makes a rash move.

The disappointed bride is still at Cooperstown wondering what became of her lover.

It is thought they have gone to Europe.

Ex-Chief Diehl has been detailed and more developments will follow.

FAIRLY STARTED.

The Library Hall Fair Continues With Unabated Success--Prizes Drawn.

A large crowd patronized Library hall fair Saturday night, and a great deal of interest was manifested.

The boy musician of the orchestra rendered some fine selections on the violin with guitar accompaniment. Harry Dimond will give a series of solos on Monday evening.

A very choice selection of cut flowers with the compliments of Mrs. J. H. Bass, came to the flower booth Saturday night.

The attendance was something like tweleve hundred.

No. 8, held by Mrs. A. B. Trentman, drew an elegant toilet raffled by the Rosary table.

No. 33, held by Mr. H. A. Arnold, drew a lovely basket of flowers from the florist table of the Young Ladies' Sodality.

Pat Murphy was sworn in by Mayor Harding yesterday as a special policeman.

A fine rug donated by Louis Wolf & Co., was drawn by Dr. McOscar, holding No. 23.

Among the visitors noticed were: Miss Eliza Nestle, the "Fairy Queen," Mr. E. Gilmartin and wife, Mr. A. D. Cressler, Mr. William Dreier and wife, Mr. Bert White and wife, Mr. Mac. Tower, Mr. William Rohan, Mr. James Orr.

Miss Kate Malone, of Lancaster, Ohio, who is visiting Mr. George P. Gordon and family, spent the evening at the hall and will be a frequent visiter at the fair.

The contest for the road wagon closed as follows: Charles Hilton, 141½; F. W. Dunham, 35; Rudolph Bensman, 16; Frank Tyrell, 55; Barney Fitzpatrick, 29.

The Ives Trial.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The trial of Henry S. Ives was resumed to-day in the court of general sessions. The first witness examined was William Nelson Crowell, the assignee of Henry Ives & Co.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Indiana—Colder, clearing weather; variable winds.

The county commissioners to-day let the contract for the new Columbia street bridge to the Milwaukee Bridge company, for $25,900, and work will begin this week.

A VERY ODD AFFAIR.

Mrs. Bond Says She is to Appear With the Casino Road Company and the Aronsons Say Not.

The New York Herald of yesterday morning publishes the following concerning Mrs. Hugh Cullough Bond, formerly of this city:

"Among the stories which have been going the rounds in theatrical circles during the past three weeks and which has found itself in print on several occasions is one to the effect that young Mrs. Jesse Hannah Bond was going on the operatic stage to play Miss Lillian Russell's part in "The Brigands" when that opera went on the road. But the odd thing about it is that the Casino people say it is'nt so, while Mrs. Bond avers that it is.

"I called on the young lady at the Hotel Metropole last evening, to ask her about her plans. She is a tall, graceful young woman, with a delightfully animated manner, and was dressed very becomingly in white.

"Yes," she said, "it is quite true that I am going on the stage. I left Chicago to come here a year ago, and since then I have been studying, oh, so very hard. I have seen Mr. Aronson, and he has been very, very kind to me.

"Yes, I am going to Boston with the company, but will not do any work for the first week. The conditions upon which I am going out are very odd—so odd that I don't think anybody else ever went out under like conditions. I do want experience very much," she continued, and she quite gave me the idea that that was all she was going with the company for.

"Of course you have heard the denials that you were to join the company?" I asked.

"Yes, but I think Mr. Aronson had his own object in making them."

Mr. Rudolph Aronson was not present when I called at the Casino, but his agent, Mr. Charles Barton, said that there was no truth in the story that Mrs. Bond had been engaged.

"Mrs. Bond has not been engaged," said he, "and Mr. Aronson never had any idea of engaging her. She has been here several times to see the opera, and I think she is simply infatuated with the stage. Why, a short time ago she engaged the flat over Miss Russell's in Forty-third street, and told the people in the house that she was going to take Miss Russell's place in the company when it went on the road.

"The other evening while two ladies were buying their seats at the box office, one of them remarked in a sort of casual way, 'I suppose Mrs. Bond is appearing as Fiorella this evening?' When the box office clerk said that he never heard of the lady, they seemed very much surprised and one of them remarked that it was very strange as she had been informed by a friend that Mrs. Bond was with the company.

"If the thing goes any further, I am sure that Mr. Aronson will issue a card to the effect that Mrs. Bond is not a member of the company."

NATURAL GAS TO-NIGHT.

The Salimonie Company Will Complete a Connection To-night, and Consumers Can Use Gas To-morrow.

Mr. H. C. Paul, of the Salimonie Natural Gas company, said to THE SENTINEL reporter to-day that the connection of the natural gas main line would be made to-night. There was a deficiency in pipe and owing to the delay four-inch screw pipe has been used. This is laid overland for temporary purposes, and will supply gas consumers, although a sufficient pressure can not be turned in to "blow out" the pipes until the required twelve-inch pipe comes.

Then there will be a grand display, which will be witnessed by hundreds, if not thousands of people.

It is asserted that gas will be on at the reducing station southwest of the city before daylight to-morrow.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

R. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

MONDAY, SEPT. 16, 1889.

THE Ohio political campaign is now booming.

MR. AND MRS. CLEM STUDEBAKER celebrated their silver wedding at South Bend Friday evening.

THREE weeks have been consumed in selecting a jury for the Cronin murder case and only one juryman has been chosen.

THE late Sunset Cox married Miss Beecher, a Muskingum (Ohio) county heiress. She was devoted to her husband, and was of great service to him during his public and literary career.

THE heir apparent to the throne of Japan, Prince Haree, is a lusty and active boy of ten years, who is being brought up in a very sensible way. He has plenty of exercise, and while he attends the nobles' school, is not filled with foolish ideas of his own rank and importance.

MRS. E. C. WILLIAMS-PATTERSON, editress of the Chicago Express, who delivered an address in this city on Labor Day, publishes a splendidly written three column article in her paper giving an account of the proceedings of the day's exercises. She says it was one of the largest parades ever held in Fort Wayne and one of the most harmonious and well conducted, and in closing the account says: "Such meetings will have much to do in dignifying and ennobling the laboring people of the world. Fort Wayne really did herself proud in this her first great industrial parade and Labor Day pic-nic. Quite a sum of money was raised for the suffering miners of Clay county, Ind., and many grateful hearts will treasure the day with pleasure long years to come, in memory of the kindly deed."

REV. DR. D. H. MOORE, the newly-elected editor of the Western Christian Advocate, has arrived in Cincinnati, and will assume his duties immediately. In a published interview, replying to a question whether there would be any change in the policy of the paper, he said: "The paper will remain, as heretofore, an official organ of the Methodist Episcopal church. My political sentiments, I believe, are well enough known to make comment unnecessary, but they will never be obtruded in the columns of the Advocate from a merely political standpoint. As in the past, the moral side of all questions shall remain paramount. The paper will still advocate prohibition, but always in conformity with the ritualistic teaching and broad doctrine of the Methodist Episcopal church. This, I believe, has been the attitude of the paper in the past, and will still be the position maintained—always on strictly moral, rather than political grounds.

SCHOOL DAYS BEGUN.

This morning was a busy one with the hundreds of school children in the city.

The long summer vacation was ended and when they opened their eyes from their night's sleep it was with the thought, expressed audibly by many lips, "School begins to-day." There was an unusual stir about the house when they arose. Their new school books had been purchased and they were strapped in a bundle and safely laid away. Their new "bib and tucker"—their everyday school clothes—were ready and it required only a few moments to don them. Breakfast was hurriedly taken, the hands and face washed, the hair combed, the shoes given a finishing "shine," and with the bundle of books thrown over his shoulder, off started the typical school boy, for it is him of whom we write.

He didn't wait for the first tap of the first school bell. He knew what it meant to be on hand early with the beginning of the first day of school, and when the door was open he was in the school room. He had his mind made up as to the choice of a seat and he got it. His books were laid away in order and then he turned to take a "squint" at the new teacher.

He is an adept at reading character, and it did not take him all day to make up his mind whether he was going to like her or not. That question decided, he began to look around to see how the other boys "were fixed," and then after expressing his opinion, favorably or otherwise, about this, that and the other, he was startled by hearing the second bell ring, followed a few moments after by the teacher's ring for order and he found his school days commenced again in earnest.

He had entered upon a new year, and whether begun with a determination to improve it or not, it is one that will have a telling effect upon his whole life.

How well do the older readers of THE SENTINEL recall, in their earlier years, such events as the one witnessed to-day in our public schools. They will tell you, boys, if they tell you anything, that these school days of yours should be carefully improved.

While it is right and proper that you should extract from the spring-time of life all the pleasure there is in it, you should not neglect your studies. You are laying the foundation for a future life. You are acquiring now the knowledge that will determine whether you are to be a man among men or a drone. See that your early education is the best that you can make it. Your school days will soon be over—too soon—and if you have not made good use of them, you will regret it, with tears, to the last day of your lives.

INTO A NEW TEMPLE.

The St. Paul Lutherans Dedicate Their Magnificent New Edifice to the Lord With Interesting Services.

Yesterday was an eventful day in the history of the St. Paul Lutheran church of this city.

It was the occasion of the dedication of their new temple of worship on Barr street, and a large number of visiting Lutherans from different parts of Indiana were in the city to attend the exercises.

The day opened auspiciously and a bright warm sun made the morning hours of the day glorious ones. This weather continued until after the dedicatory exercises began at 10 o'clock, when a rain fell and interfered somewhat with the subsequent exercises of the day.

In the morning the immense and handsome edifice was crowded, and when the services began every seat in the auditorium below and the gallery above was occupied, while the aisles and the rear part of the church were crowded and hundreds stood without, unable even to gain admittance.

The church looked beautiful and it was an inspiring scene when the grand organ pealed forth its silvery notes and the exercises of the day were begun The dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. H. G. Sauer, the pastor of the church, and then the choir, under the leadership of Prof. John H. Ungemach, rendered one of Mozart's celebrated masses, which was followed by an able and eloquent sermon by Rev. C. M. Zorn, of Cleveland, Ohio, in German.

In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the church was again crowded. The choir, under the leadership of Prof. Edward Gerberding, rendered an anthem and Rev. C. Gross, of the Emanuel Lutheran church, delivered the sermon in German. It was one of the finest pulpit efforts of that able divine, and was attentively listened to by the vast congregation.

In the evening another service was held and Prof. A. Crull, of the Concordia college, preached the sermon in English. The immense edifice, which has a seating capacity of 1,500, was not large enough to seat the audience and when Professor Crull arose to commence the service, he must have stood before 2,000 people or more.

His sermon was a masterpiece of oratory, beautiful in thought and grandly eloquent and was preached from the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th verses of the forty-sixth Psalms. The vast audience could catch every word and he held them interested listeners until the close of the discourse, when Professor Hormel's choir made the temple resonant with their inspiring music.

Yesterday was indeed a grand day for the St. Paul Lutherans of this city—a red letter day in their history—and one that will live in memory for many a year.

THE SENTINEL, in its Saturday's issue, gave a description of the new house of worship and a history of the congregation, but it may be interesting here to state that had the dedicatory services been held on Saturday instead of yesterday, the church could have celebrated also the anniversary of their establishment in Fort Wayne, for the first Evangelical Lutheran congregation in Indiana, was established in this city on Saturday, Sept. 14th, 1837.

I am satisfied that Cancer is hereditary in my family. My father died of it, a sister of my mother died of it, and my own sister died of it. My feelings may be imagined, then, when the horrible disease made its appearance on my side. It was a malignant Cancer, eating inwardly in such a way that it could not be cut out. Numerous remedies were used for it, but the Cancer grew steadily worse, until it seemed that I was doomed to follow the others of the family. I took Swift's Specific, which, from the first day, forced out the poison, and continued its use until I had taken several bottles, when I found myself well. I know that S. S. S. cured me.

The mystery has been solved at last;
Our teeth no longer need decay,
All troubles of the mouth are past,
By SOZODONT they're swept away;
And young and old may smile secure
With lips and teeth so bright and pure.

"It is all right:" Is what Mr. Geo. C. Henry, a Burlington, Iowa, druggist says, of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Henry ought to know, as he has sold over 300 bottles of the remedy, during the past winter. Coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough are speedily cured by it. For sale by Geo. H. Loesh.

Grates and open stoves using No. 5 Mixer or smaller, where boilers or furnaces are also used for heating the premises, shall be charged $7.50 each per annum.

The company will make all necessary connections with its street mains and run service pipes to the curb line without expense to the consumer.

The mixers are owned by the company, and are furnished without charge. Patrons are cautioned against interfering with them in any manner. Any defective service on the part of the company will be promptly attended to, upon notice to the office. A damper in the stove pipe is necessary to insure successful service.

All bills are due on the 1st day of the month, and payable in advance AT THE OFFICE OF THE COMPANY. Ten days' grace is allowed to patrons who pay promptly, but BILLS MUST BE PAID ON OR BEFORE THE 10TH OF EACH MONTH TO SAVE DISCOUNT. Allowing the time for discount to expire before making payment does not give an extension of time on the bill.

All applications, notices and complaints must be made at the office to insure prompt attention.

The business of the company MUST be transacted AT ITS OFFICE. If you do not clearly understand any point in this circular, call at this office and explanations will be cheerfully given.

☞The mixer is the bulb through which the gas passes to be mixed with air. A No. 5 mixer is the size generally used for domestic purposes and will supply sufficient gas for heating equal to an ordinary hard coal stove, burning from 4½ to 5 tons of coal during the season. No. 7 and upward are for hot air furnaces and steam heating apparatus.

No. 5 mixer has 4-32 opening.
No. 7 mixer has 5-32 opening.
No. 9 mixer has 6-32 opening.

Special attention is called to the annual rates, which are much below the cost of coal, wood or gasoline.

Furnace or cook stove will be counted as one stove, and where additional fires are used they will be figured on the basis of reduction named in price list.

Annual Contracts are payable in six monthly installments, commencing with the date of connection, between November 1 and May 1, and continuing to April 1, and commencing again November 1 if necessary to complete six monthly installments. If connections under Annual Contracts are made after May 1, but previous to November 1, then such monthly payments shall begin November 1 and continue to April 1.

Any consumer using $40.00 worth of gas per year according to above schedule shall have the right to require gas to be furnished by meter measurement instead of schedule rates; in which case the company shall have the right to charge ten (10) cents per 1,000 feet. Standard meters will be furnished by the company.

For all manufacturing purposes and for all other consumers not designated in the foregoing schedule, gas shall be furnished at the option of the consumer as follows:

First, by special agreement, or second, by meter measurement not exceeding seven (7) cents per 1,060 cubic feet.

Than this New Compound of Tar for Coughs, Croup, Scrofula, Ulcers, Varicose Veins, Bronchitis, and Consumption.

Wounds, Burns, Sores, Piles, Salt Rheum, Eczema, and

TAR-OID must not be confounded with the cheap remedies which are prepared on the theory that Skin Diseases are caused by impure blood, Which is not true. They have their cause in a want of vital action in the skin. TAR-OID restores this action, hence it cures every form of Skin Disease, also sores, burns, etc. It is soothing and wonderfully healing—gratifying results follow in every case. It is harmless and can be used with perfect safety by any one. It is superior to all other remedies. There is positively nothing else like it.

TAR-OID is a sure cure for piles. It never fails. We warrant a cure or refund the money. It gives immediate relief. It is perfectly safe, yet powerful in its action.

THE JENNEY IN THE PEN.

The Contract for Lighting the Prison North Given to the Jenney Company--News From the Busy Centers.

The directors of the prison north, at Michigan City, are making some new and important improvements at the prison. In July last they contracted for a $9,000 sewer connecting the prison with the lake. This was done in pursuance of a special act of the legislature. The work will be completed by winter. The system of lighting the prison has always been poor and expensive. There are 760 cells. These are lighted with tallow dips. Outside the cells gas is used, but it is expensive and but poorly does the work. Saturday the board contracted with the Fort Wayne Electric company to put in a $9,400 alternating incandescent electric light plant which will serve to give the prison a perfect system of lights. The plant will consist of two 600 sixteen candle dynamos and one 100 horse power, slow movement, Corliss engine.

The cells will each be lighted with a ten candle incandescent light. This will give about 500 sixteen-candle lights to use in and about the prison. The plant will be one of the latest improved and best constructed of any in the country, the material used and workmanship done being under bond for the best. There were six competing companies and the board listened to them one at a time for twelve hours before deciding. The work will be begun at once and completed by November 1.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

The Pittsburg shops are now building eight locomotives and are working 1,000 men.

S. A. Grable, of the Nickel Plate, is making handsome improvements to his residence.

Engineer L. Lavimore, of the Nickel Plate, is lying dangerously ill at his residence in Nebraska.

William Boag, the veteran machinist at the Pittsburg works, has returned from a visit to Iowa.

Master Car Builder James A. Graham, of the Pittsburg shops, is in Illinois on business for the company.

Engineer John Kennedy, of the Nickel Plate, returned to work to-day after a three weeks vacation.

F. M. Mauk, conductor on the Pittsburg, is spending his vacation at St. Louis, and in the west visiting friends.

The Pennsylvania company is selling reduced rate tickets to Warsaw this week on account of the big stock fair in progress there.

Chas T. Strawbridge, stenographer at the Bass works, was being congratulated this morning over the arrival of a pretty baby boy at his home.

George Cain, or the Wabash road, was elected a member of the executive staff of the Roadmasters' association, at their convention, in Denver, Col., last week.

The railroad depots were crowded last evening with excursionists returning to their homes from attending the dedicatory exercises of the St. Paul Lutheran church.

Thomas Cragg, formerly foreman at the Olds wheel works, but now foreman in an extensive wheel establishment at Lansing, Mich., is in the city visiting his family. Mr. Cragg has a lucrative position at Lansing, and his many friends here are glad to know it.

The Pennsylvania has extensive improvements under consideration at Philadelphia. Their passenger station is inadequate to meet the requirements of the road, and plans are being prepared looking to the occupying of all the ground on Market street, from Broad to Eighteenth street, for passenger depot purposes, the upper stories to be used for the general office, their present quarters being entirely too limited.

IT WON'T BAKE BREAD.—In other words, Hood's Sarsaparilla will not do impossibilities. Its proprietors tell plainly what it has done, submit proofs from sources of unquestioned reliability, and ask you frankly if you are suffering from any disease or affection caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The experience of others is sufficient assurance that you will not be disappointed in the result.

Stray dogs are seized in Birmingham, Eng., and after being poisoned are cremated in a furnace at the rate of fifty a day.

Use the surest remedy for catarrh—Dr. Sage's.

If you do not receive your SENTINEL regularly, please notify us immediately, either in person or by postal card, that we may remedy the fault.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

Cal Wagner's Big Company.

Happy Cal Wagner with his genuine old time minstrels are to visit us in all their glory on Monday, September 16, at the Temple. It is a splendid troupe composed of the best talent attainable in the profession. Besides Cal Wagner the company contains Billy Birch, Cool Burgess, Charles Heywood, Charles Henry, John H. Mack, Coleman & Martin, Rooney & Kelly, the Manhattan Sextette and several others of equal note in the amusement line. The introductory first part is a novelty, being a beautfully artistic stage effect, representing a realistic plantation scene, with the planter's house in the foreground and the wedding of his daughter progressing in full view of the audience. The troupe carries its own scenery.

Little Miss Muffett, she sat on a tuffett,
Eating of curs and whey;
There came a great spider who sat down beside her,
To frighten Miss Muffett away.

But little Miss Muffett sat still on her tuffett,
And ate up her curds and whey;
"Of spider's bite, I assure you, Pond's Extract will cure you,"
Said Miss Muffett, "so here will I stay."

A Blood Purifier for 25 Cents.

While the merits of the various blood purifiers are being shown up to the best advantage possible by their several manufacturers, we would suggest to persons feeling the need of such medicine, that they try a dose of St. Patrick's Pills, and assure them, that they will not only be surprised but delighted, with the result. Those who wish to feel the animation, buoyancy and clear-headedness of youth should take St. Patrick's Pills. For sale by George H. Loesch.

PRINCE BISMARCK has at Varzin 22,000 acres, of which 15,000 are covered with glorious forests of oak and beech. His home farm comprises 400 acres, and the remainder of the cleared land is let in farms of about 700 acres each.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

MR. GEORGE KEENAN, in his latest paper in the Century on the Russian captives in Siberia, brings out what to many will be the singular fact that Count Tolstoi fails to accord these men any sympathy. He will not listen to tales of their suffering, and refuses to contribute money for their aid, holding that they have brought their fate upon themselves, and are not subjects for philanthropy.

Pastor Sims, of this city, will conduct the funeral services.

GEORGIA has produced another Lulu Hurst, of magnetic fame, in the person of Mrs. Annie Abbott, of Milledgeville, who can lift great weights by simply putting her hands on them. She has lifted five heavy men piled up on a chair at a time by placing her hand on the ears of one of them. She says the feats never tire her, but just before a trial she feels nervous and weary. She sleeps well after throwing strong people about. She must stand on wood and operate with wooden chairs and sticks. When in contact with carpets and iron she can do nothing. Recently, when exhibiting in the South, somebody connected a wire with her body and grounded it, and immediately she was powerless. She is a small, delicate woman, very quiet and modest.

PRINCE ALEXANDER, of Battenberg, is living, with his wife, at Gratz, in Styria, where he has purchased a beautiful villa. Prince Alexander is reported to be engaged in writing his reminiscences, from the time of his nomination to the crown of Bulgaria (April, 1879) until his morganatic marriage last month. He is very bitter against the royal family of England, and does not appear to entertain friendly feelings toward the Empress Frederick.

HENRY WILES, of Charleston, W. Va., turned over his pillow the other morning on arising and found a rattlesnake coiled up under it and quietly sleeping.

The Days of Chivalry Restored.

Not every one reads Walter Scott nowadays, and the joust and tournament only live in legend, but Adam Forepaugh in his Great Combination Show gives a brilliant portrayal of two armored Knights, with casque and helmet, armed cap-a-pie, mounted on fiery steeds, and whose ringing broadswords clash and clang on the coats of mail in a manner that would have delighted the great "Wizard of the North." It carries one back to the days of Ivanhoe and we can almost see Rebecca at the window describing the scene to the wounded Knight.

Fort Wayne Day.

An event that promises to attract a large number of Fort Wayne people to Warsaw is the great stock show to be held at Spring Fountain park. September 19 has been set aside as "Fort Wayne day," when all facilities and conveniences of that resort will be thrown wide open to visitors from this city. The features of the show include an art department, best of racing, thrilling chariot races and splendid music. The stock show is doubtless the best held in northern Indiana. Half fare rates have been fixed on the railroads.
